Lots Of Entertainment At Forest Theater With Play Opening Tonight

Tonight, tomorrow, and Saturday, at 8:30 o'clock, in the beautiful Forest Theater, A Midsummer-Night's Dream will be presented by the Carmel Shakespeare Players.

In this play, it will be recalled, there are three groups: the mortals, consisting of Theseus, the duke of Athens, and his bride-to-be, Hippolyta, queen of the Amazons; the four lovers, Lysander, Demetrius, Hermia and Helena; Egeus, father of Hermia, and Philostrate, master of the revels. Most of these parts are played by experienced Shakespearean actors, the rest by well-trained young people.

Next there are the clowns—mortals, hard-handed men, mechanics, who prepare a tragedy to play before their duke at his wedding festivities. This tragedy becomes a howling farce. As Margaret Webster, the famous Shakespearean director, says: "The clowns are genuine, human, and indestructible. We fall for them today as they did in Elizabethan London."

And then the supernatural beings: Exquisite Titania, queen of the fairies, and her royal mate, Oberon, king of the elfin realm; and Puck, the knavish sprite who mixes up the four lovers so well that only near the end of the drama can things be straightened out. Starbird, Sunleaf, and a host of tiny elves make up the group.

All these elements are magically welded together by the great English dramatist. Again to quote Margaret Webster: "A Midsummer-Night's Dream is as moon-drenched as Romeo and Juliet is shot with stars. The Moon is not in a malignant phase, but her radiance sheds a disturbing magic this midsummer night, holding all the play in an opalescent enchantment. Only with Theseus' hunting horns at dawn does the thin silver

"Improvement" At Sunset Will Destroy 8 Pines, Expose Blat Blue Bldgs.

There is $27,000 left after completing first priority improvements at the four schools, Superintendent Stuart Mitchell told the school board at its Tuesday night meeting, so the board approved several items on the second priority list, the most distressing of which is:

Leveling and blacktopping the strip at Sunset School on the upper level along San Carlos Street at Tenth for volleyball courts. This means cutting down eight pine trees and exposing to view the two former kindergarten cottages which are painted an eye-whacking blue, and the incinerator chimney.

Your editor protested.

J. O. Handley, in the audience, who retired from the school board last May, said they are ugly trees.

They are small trees but they are not ugly.

The board opened bids for redwood grapestake fences, 600 feet to enclose the baseball field at the high school, 410 feet for River School playground. San Carlos Agency's low bid of $2398 was $145 higher than low bid for chain steel fences opened several weeks ago.

Mr. Handley suggested that the San Carlos Agency might reduce its price if it were not required to set the posts in concrete. Redwood posts rot in five years in concrete, but won't rot in 60 years set in the ground, he argued. But if San Carlos wouldn't come down in its price, he, personally would make up the difference in cost rather than see the steel mesh fence put up. Aesthetics are that important to him, he said.

The board accepted the San Carlos Agency's grapestake fence bid.

A year ago while he was on the board, Mr. Handley said, the sanitary district board had offered to take the school district into the sanitary district for $10,000 payable at $1000 a year which is about the same amount the school district pays now in yearly fees to the sanitary district. He and Superintendent Mitchell were supposed to complete the deal but they forgot about it. Reminded last week by the sanitary board secretary, Mr. Handley now urged the school board to complete the agreement.

"We've lost the $700 we paid this year in fees which could have gone toward the $10,000 charge," he concluded.

The board instructed Superintendent Mitchell to complete the agreement with the sanitary district.

Mrs. Joseph Oenning and several other mothers of school children protested double session at Woods School.

Children attending the afternoon sessions will not be out of class until 5:00 o'clock. The double sessions will continue through January.

"For two months it will be dark when the children get out of school," Mrs. Oenning pointed out. She wanted to know why the afternoon session couldn't start half an hour earlier.

Richard O'Connell, Woods-River principal, said afternoon sessions couldn't start earlier because of conflict with lunch hour in the cafeteria.

"We thought about holding one class at the high school, but they don't have room and there aren't any playground facilities at the high school for our age group. We thought of doubling up, but there isn't enough room for two teachers

Boating, Fishing Historic House Tour Are Holiday Events

Labor Day weekend activities on the peninsula include speedboat and sailing regattas, the Salmon Derby fish-off, a tennis jamboree and a tour of nine famous adobes.

The third annual speedboat regatta, sponsored by the Seaside Lions Club, starts at 1:00 o'clock on Saturday afternoon off Monterey Municipal Wharf No. 2. Among top speedboat racing champions entering the regatta are national champion Ward Anguillet, Lon Stevens of Oakland, Chuck Parsons of Lodi, and Henry Wagner of Fresno.

Initial events are local participants racing and water skiing in age classes ranging from youngsters to grandfathers. Twenty-one boats will also be on exhibition. On Sunday there are to be ten different events for members of the Northern California Outboard Association.

Here's The "Dope" On School Opening In Carmel Tuesday

All four Carmel schools open on Tuesday. Classes at the High School start at 8:00 o'clock with an assembly scheduled from 8:00-8:20 o'clock. Lunch will be served in the cafeteria and students remain for their scheduled day.

Sunset School eighth and seventh grades start the new school year at 8:30 o'clock. Sixth and fifth grades report at 9:00. The cafeteria will be open and a full day's work is planned.

Woods and River Schools, kindergarten through fourth grades, start at 9:00 o'clock except for double session grades. Times for these classes are in the school board story in this issue. Lunch will be served.

2 Defend Unions At Pub. Meet

Two persons defended labor unionism; a dozen criticized union methods and leadership in city hall yesterday afternoon at the open meeting called by the proponents of a right to work ordinance for Carmel.

When enthusiasm was at its height, Admiral C. W. Fisher, one of the five committee men seated around the council table, reminded the gathering of citizens which nearly filled the council room:

"This leads us to too many by-ways. Let's get the car back on the freeway. This group (the citizens committee for the right to work ordinance) is not pro or anti union. All we are interested in is getting this ordinance."

In reviewing the situation that lead to the circulation of petitions last week — there are over 1000 signatures to date — Admiral Fisher said:

"This activity started with the picketing of the Blue Bird Restaurant, a situation which the inhabitants of Carmel basically do not like. One of the means of preventing a recurrence in the future would be the passage of the right to work ordinance. Nobody has a right to conspire against a person who does not wish to join a union."

Since the committee started circulating the petitions last week, the picketing of the Blue Bird, which has been going on since July 4, has stopped. "To what extent our activity has caused this we don't know," Admiral Fisher continued. "The union has announced it will take civil action against the restaurant owners. This is right and according to our American traditions."

The issue is whether or not the new owners are bound by a contract of the former owners with the Hotel, Restaurant Employees and Bartenders union.

But the withdrawal of the pic-

That Plan Again! Planners, Council Meet On Sept. 11

The city council and planning commission will meet to discuss the master plan and interim ordinance on September 11 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening if this date, set yesterday afternoon by the planning commission, is also convenient for the council. The meeting will be the beginning of the last step in deciding if Carmel will adopt a master plan based on the plan submitted by Lawrence Livingston Jr. The interim ordinance has given the planning commission power to control all business zone development. Whether it will be extended or incorporated into a new zoning ordinance will be discussed at the September 11 meeting.

The planning commission yesterday afternoon decided to recommend to the council that Carmel be represented on the proposed area planning commission by two members, one from the commission and one from the council, or both from the planning commission. Terms of office will be concurrent with terms on the Carmel commission or council.

CARMEL HIGH GRIDDEES OPEN PRACTICE

Eighty football candidates and about the same number of spectators gathered at Bardarson Field Tuesday afternoon for the Padre's first practice of the 1957 season. Jumping the gun on the English, mathematics, biology, and history students, the Carmel High griddees will get in four practice sessions before school opens on September 3rd. Except for tender feet and some tired muscles which hadn't been used much during the summer vacation, all the grid prospects came through the initial workouts in tiptop shape. No practice sessions are planned for Saturday or Monday, but the Padres will go to work in earnest next Tuesday afternoon when the school bell rings again.

Twelve varsity lettermen reported for the first day's workout and they appeared to have the size and speed to provide a solid nucleus for a 33-man varsity squad. Heading the returning varsity lettermen was Joe Mason, 1956 co-captain, who reported in at a fit and ready 180 pounds and appeared to be set for scrimmage on the opening day. An all-league selection last season, Mason should be one of the best guards in the CCAL this year. Carmel's all-league end, Art Wilkerson, checked in with an added 15 pounds scattered over his skinny frame and should be a fine bulwark at one of the Padre flank positions this season. Another all-league performer, Phil Durbrow, missed the first practice sessions because of horse show duty in Colorado. However, the rangy tackle will be on hand when school opens and his experience will have a settling effect on the rookie tackles who are moving up from the junior-varsity. Welcomed to the Padre varsity were two transfers from other schools who will provide some much-needed speed to the red and gray squad. From King City comes Ted Smith, a 10.5 sprinter with a solid build and a flair for throwing and running with a football. Ted will make a bid for the quarterback position on the varsity squad. Another sprinter, Dare Conroy, comes from far away Rhode Island with aspirations to be a starting fullback with the Carmel High aggregation.

Other varsity lettermen answering the first call were Cim Conway, the only experienced quarterback on the squad; Andy Gray, a hard-hitting fullback with three year's experience; Neil Giarratana, 160-pound guard playing his third year of football; Mal Burdis, veteran guard; Tim O'Shea, a left-handed halfback; Parker Pollock, 190-pound center; Pat Harney, hard-blocking end; Fred Nelson, 190-pound tackle; and Dennis Peavey, one of the finest defensive halfbacks in the league. Up from the junior-varsity squad for their first try at varsity ball are: Dave Vincent and Steve Gann, centers; Bill Hicks, Robin Way, Alf Anderson, and Phil White, ends; Mike Raggett and John Morse, guards; Norman Colman, Sam Farr, and George Blanks, tackles; Roger Premier, quarterback; Pete Phillips, Gary Bradburn, Jim Lee, and Tony Bingham, halfbacks; and Bob Goldwater, fullback.

Fred Rainer, junior-varsity mentor, was gleefully rubbing his hands as he greeted the sons of

Suzann Pilot Says Turkey's "Terrific"

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Pilot are looking forward to the middle of September when their daughter Suzann returns from a summer in Turkey, as an American Field Services exchange student, to enter her senior year at Carmel High School.

All summer her letters have told of her delight with the kind, hospitable Turkish people and the "terrific" country she sees daily. Suzann landed in France with the group of AFS students with whom she crossed the Atlantic from Montreal, Canada. Then she travelled south across Europe by train to Marseilles and by Turkish luxury liner across the Mediterranean to Istanbul with stops in Genoa, Naples, Pompeii and Athens.

The mother and two older daughters of her Turkish "family" met her in Istanbul. For the next three weeks they stayed there, during the Mahomet's birthday national holiday. During this time Turkish people visit and renew friendships and Suzann accompanied her hostesses on their visits besides seeing famous mosques, palaces and homes of the sultans before going to her "family's" home in Adana in the southern part of Turkey.

Shortly after she arrived in Adana the family left to spend the summer in the mountains and Suzann went, too. She writes home that the resort in which she stayed, Burulick, is much like Yosemite only much bigger. She has also been taken to surrounding cities and entertained by the governor. Her "family" has in every way tried to give Suzann a true picture of Turkish life. During the summer she has learned 500 Turkish words and is able to "get along."

In all Suzann finds Turkey a most beautiful country, the people kind and loving, and is anxious to tell her Carmel schoolmates all about her experiences.

Each year selected Carmel High School students spend a summer abroad in return for the student body raising money to bring a foreign student to Carmel for a year under the American Field Services exchange student program.

Dr. Hart Speaks Before Carmel Lions

Dr. Henry H. Hart of San Francisco, author, lecturer and member of the faculty of the University of California, discussed the Arab world for Carmel Lions Club members and guests Tuesday night. A frequent visitor to Carmel for many years, Dr. Hart has lived for years in the Orient, and is an expert on Chinese poetry.

The speaker sketched the rise of Moslem influence in the middle East since the birth of Mohammed and described present conditions in the Arab states between the Mediterranean and the Persian Gulf. He emphasized their present political instability and their economic dependence upon other countries except in those cases where discovery of oil has brought spectacular wealth to desert rulers.

During a one hour question period following his talk, Dr. Hart disclosed his concern over the ineffectiveness of American foreign policy in dealing with the advance of Communist influence.

Guests at the dinner meeting included William Kirkman of Madera, Fletcher Rogers of Carmel, James Heather of Grass Valley, Dr. Robert L. Goulding and Hilmi Voskay of Carmel.

Stanley Ewig, chairman of the committee in charge of the Lion's tacos booth at the County Fair, reported very encouraging returns from sale of the popular Mexican food. Club members were also informed of the necessity for a change in their meeting place. The group agreed to hold its next meeting at Tom's Cafe on Dolores Street.

Two Defend Unions At Public Meeting

kets does not guarantee there will not be a recurrence. We intend to go on," Admiral Fisher concluded.

Captain H. M. Gleason, chairman, opened the meeting with the announcement that the committee intended to present its petitions on the proposed ordinance to the city council Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock, with a recommendation that the council pass a right to work ordinance "applicable to Carmel and based on the Tehama County ordinance. There is no criticism or union busting element in this."

Catherine Gorringer spoke from the audience. She said she did not belong to any union but, "I admire what the unions have done in this country. I can't see the reason for this ordinance. They tried the same thing in San Benito County and it failed. Only the state can make such a law. No small locality can make such an ordinance and not come into legal difficulty."

Brooke Mordecai, another spectator, countered with: "I can't see why people here have to lie down and take what the union hands out. I think what we are doing will have a good moral effect on the union."

Edward Wilson, who said he has worked in both union and non union hotels, began: "You speak of abuses of the unions but..."

Chairman Gleason interrupted, "I know the song you'll sing. What the unions have accomplished. But you come in and tell a man he can't work because he doesn't belong to the union; and you tell the boss he has to fire him." He termed union activity on the national level, gangsterism, and named corrupt labor leaders.

Mr. Wilson pointed out that the non-union employees of the Blue Bird restaurant are receiving above standard wages because the unions have raised the wage standard. As for corruption and gangsterism in the unions: "There are 15 million of us, and you give us a black eye because of a few."

Col. C. B. Hazeltine said he is in sympathy with what the unions have done in raising the standard of living. Capital undoubtedly had exploited labor. When he was a young man he worked in a lumber camp for 75 cents a day. "But the unions have drifted into dictatorship. James Hoffa was exposed in congress but he won't be voted out. The unions can't vote him out. They haven't a chance."

Professor C. E. Corbin said, "The only thing the union has in its favor is that the people who do not belong to the unions are getting something for nothing," but he thought there should be another way to settle that problem besides striking. "I can remember when capital was in control. Now there is a reversal."

Captain Gleason recalled that 60 years ago he worked for $35 a month as a teacher. At that point Admiral Fisher put in his plea to "get the car back on the freeway."

Several spoke after Admiral Fisher's summary. Howard Murphy, one of the committee, warned, "We shall have to expect a barrage of propaganda against us. We have adequate legal advice that it is within the prerogative of the council to pass the ordinance. Nobody can say what ordinance is valid until it has been tested in highest court. We are in for a tough fight because whether we get our ordinance passed or not we have educated the public at the grass roots level." He added that some of the signers of the petition had been threatened with union reprisal.

Dorothy Chapman and Dudley Swim spoke briefly in favor of the action of the committee and the spirit of the community in supporting it. Harlan Ware said, "We all have to be vigilant in protecting our freedom. I would not want to be told I had to join a church or club, or that I couldn't. It goes right back to the origin of our freedom. In a courageous community like this we are right to make a stand."

Virginia Kendall

Mrs. Virginia Hoge Kendall died on Sunday in a local hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Kendall was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, on December 1, 1870. She came to Carmel to visit friends six weeks ago.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Wild of Rutland, Vermont; and a niece, Mrs. Josephine C. Blue of Stanford.

Private funeral services were held on Tuesday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea. Inurnment will be in the family plot at Prairie Grove Cemetery, La Noille, Ill. Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

The moonlit heavens will not often be so beautifully cloudless, nor Shakespeare's lyric gift so purely melodious."

There are radiant costumes by Hazel McLellan, soft lighting by Roland Scheffler, Mendelssohn's lovely music in charge of Mausita Jennings, charming dances arranged by Frank Bourman, and one of Herbert Heron's fine settings constructed by Jack James, Edgar Bryant, Eleanor White, Bernice Anderson, Christopher Jones, Jared Mays and many helpers.

With a cast of twenty-four, and crowds of elves and courtiers, and over thirty working on the staff and in other ways, this community production of A Midsummer-Night's Dream has enlisted the labor and enthusiasm of a notable section of Carmel, and should not be missed by anyone. Children will be especially welcome, and are sure to enjoy this great romantic comedy.

Assisting Bert Heron in the direction are Blanche Holmie and Bud Houghton.

Point Directors Meet Tuesday

Letters . . .

R.M.S. Caronia,
August 21, 1957.

Dear Wilma:

Carmel seems very far away these days although it is always close to my heart. We are sailing on a calm sea in latitude 48, longitude 24. The day's run for our ship, the Caronia of the Cunard line, is 469 and the air temperature is the same as the water, 65°. It has been a remarkably smooth steady trip and although it is my first experience of the Atlantic I have found it as calm these days as it was on former trips across the Pacific. There are only about 200 passengers on board, although I understand that this ship has a capacity of 700. We have met many interesting people and the days have passed pleasantly and swiftly. Two more days and we should be landing at Le Havre where friends from Germany will most likely meet us.

When we left the pier in New York and moved into the harbour in the late afternoon sunlight, I thought I had never seen anything more impressive. The light came through the clouds and illuminated the tall buildings separately and in groups, the coloring soft through a bluish haze, so that it all looked like a delicate water-color of some majestic city. The Statue of Liberty stood there with its dignity and quiet strength, more appealing in reality than in all the many pictures. As we passed the various piers we saw the Mayflower, looking like a child's toy beside the great liners. It seemed inconceivable that they could have crossed the ocean in such a picturesque little affair. One could just imagine it being tossed from one wave to another playfully.

Each day I try to study German in preparation for a long visit with German friends and relatives. The main trouble I have is that I find myself using Dutch pronunciations constantly. But as soon as I hear the language spoken around me I expect that I shall get used to it. I certainly hope to, or I shall feel very much at a loss.

I thought of the Planning Commission and our struggle for a Green Belt and for landscaped parkways as we drove from Fishkill to New York last week along the beautiful green parkways of New York State. The full-leaved trees cluster in the background, and here and there the white lines of the silver birches relieve the greenness. At the road-side wide stretches of clipped grass stretch for miles and in places the wildflowers of late summer decorate the borders. How lovely our Monterey Peninsula could be if we had such parkways, and so free of litter and advertising! But we are moving in the right direction and it all takes time.

Lorna Anderson of Sacramento, Miss California of 1957 and last year's Maid of California, holds prize-winning California orchids such as those to be on display during the California State Fair and Exposition, August 28-September 8. More than 1,000,000 blooms will be exhibited in the fair's Hall of Flowers—one of the most popular buildings on the grounds.

Greetings to all from Dora Hagemeyer (Dora Mayer).

House Of Flaire To Occupy New Building On Dolores Street

The House of Flaire, owned by Evelyn Young, is Carmel's newest business enterprise. It carries on the classes on beauty care and personal improvement given for the last seven years by the Gloria Akin School of Charm. Mrs. Young has located her combined charm school and accessory shop in the just-completed building owned by Mrs. George Linsley, Jr., on Dolores Street, south of Ocean Avenue. Mrs. Young has devised a color plan in pink and black for the interior of her shop. She will stock exclusive millinery, a special line of cosmetics, jewelry, scarves and imported flowers.

The Gloria Akin basic and master courses in the background and fundamentals of the art of beauty care, and in personal improvement, now are being set up for fall enrollment. Mrs. Young has arranged with Mrs. Akin to conduct the charm school under the Akin name, and retaining the procedures and techniques made well known by Gloria Akin during her years in Carmel. Mr. and Mrs. David Akin recently moved to Los Angeles. Since 1954 Mrs. Young has been associated with Mrs. Akin in her charm school.

A special feature of The House of Flaire is a plan whereby women may bring in to Evelyn Young, dresses, costumes and ensembles they have just purchased, or those already in their wardrobes, and receive Mrs. Young's suggestions as to the appropriate jewelry, scarves, flowers and millinery which best will enhance the costume. In addition to accessories Mrs. Young will offer the Magic Mirror cosmetic line, one which provides a very simple procedure for beauty care.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

Ruth Galvin Thornburg, Librarian
Such good books we have this week, you wouldn't believe it unless we told you, honestly. So shall we start without further conversation?

Headlining the list this week is Cameron Hill by Martin Flavin of Pebble Beach. This is the latest novel from the pen of the Pulitzer winning Mr. Flavin. It is the story of Cameron Bradley, of his life at Cameron Hill, and afterward. This is a book you will want to read, whether or not you know the author personally, because you will enjoy it and because it is a book which will be discussed. It is that good.

Stephen Potter is the man who wrote those ships books, Gamesmanship, Lifemanship, and One-Upmanship. In those he was having fun, and so did we when we read them. Some people actually practiced certain of the gambits suggested in those books and come out on top in given situations, which victories they enjoyed no end. That was all right, too. Potter's new book is serious, after a fashion. It is called Potter on America. The writing followed two trips to this country which he made in 1951 and 1955. There are many things about us that Mr. Potter likes, and he is very witty about everything he says. This is one book an American can read without ending by feeling that some one has been tramping all over him. That in itself is reason enough for reading the book.

After reading They Fought for the Sky by Quentin Reynolds, you may begin to wonder where the world found men of sufficient courage to fly the aircraft of the first World War. This book calls them "international heroes", and so they were. This is a book for those who lived through the first war to use for remembering, and for the very young to marvel over.

And while we are on war, let us mention The Invasion of France and Germany by Samuel Morison. This is part of a series of books on World War II and is the only one of the series which we have. The ten earlier volumes have been coming out over a period of years. Each is a separate entity, so the fact that we lack earlier volumes should not bother you. This is the naval side of the vast military operation which broke Hitler's war machine.

A collection of short pieces by James Michener is called Rascals in Paradise. These are stories of people who sought peace and profit in the islands of the South Seas. Some of the stories were printed in magazines before being collected in this book.

A remarkable case of multiple personality was Eve White who asked for psychiatric help in Augusta, Georgia. As time and treatment went on it became apparent that Eve White was three people. One called herself Eve White, another was Eve Black, and the third called herself Jane. The Three Faces of Eve is the book written by two doctors, which explains this fantastic case, and its treatment and cure. The authors are Thigpen and Cleckley. The book is fascinating.

And finally, we have a good mystery story for those who want a minimum of blood and gore. This one is by Arthur Upfield and is called The Bushman Who Came Back. It is a tale of Australia and of a murder in the back country there. This one you will enjoy. There are many more good books this week. Do come in and choose one for your pleasant week-ahead.

14TH YEAR FOR BLUE JAY

Blue Jay Nursery School is opening this fall for its fourteenth year, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Tuthill (Miss Jay). Children from three to six years are enrolled in the school for three hours of guidance and fun with Miss Jay. Not the least of the many activities at Blue Jay School is art. Miss Jay allows her small friends to express themselves freely in paint and a show of the small children's imaginative work was displayed in Carmel several years ago to the delight of the town. Enrollments are being taken now by Miss Jay who provides transportation to and from the school and plans weekly excursions for her children.

"6 minutes on duty...cuts my wife's workday by hours"

San Francisco Mounted Policeman, Julius Long, earns enough in 6 minutes to run a houseful of appliances for 24 hours

Heat, lights and running 28 appliances hardly makes a dent in the Long's family budget. Mr. Long figures it takes him just 6 minutes on duty to pay for all this gas and electricity. "At these low prices we can afford to give our appliances a real work-out, and have more time to enjoy things like T.V."

This is another way Californians live better. With gas and electricity so cheap, you can afford to let appliances do more of your housework. For even though the cost of living has doubled in the last 20 years, a unit of P. G. and E. gas and electricity costs you about 1/2 less than it did back in 1936.

Live better—gas and electricity are cheap in California

Conservation On The March

A Weekly Column by
C. Edward Graves,
Western Representative,
National Parks Association

BOATING IN THE NATIONAL PARKS

On a recent visit to Lassen Volcanic National Park I was greatly pleased to learn that the Park Superintendent has forbidden the use of motor boats on Juniper Lake. This is one of the largest and most attractive of the lakes in the eastern section of the park. It is not, however, more than a mile or two across in any direction and the noise of motors would ruin the charm of the present peaceful atmosphere of the lake.

While I was there, small sail boats were enjoying the breezes, and row boats were in leisurely use. I watched a family party of this kind, the man and their small son maneuvering the sail boat, the woman with their daughter rowing into the small coves and making rendezvous with the rest of the family occasionally. A delightful way to enjoy a vacation and quite in keeping with the purposes of the national park system!

With speed boats roaring around activities of this kind would be impossible. I remember an experience that my wife and I had several years ago in one of the most beautiful lakes in the West. We rented a canoe for a day of leisurely paddling around the wooded shores of the lake. No sooner had we left the protection of the small boat harbor than speed boat maniacs started circling around us with the evident purpose of showing how smart they were. Only by hugging the shore in the shallowest parts of the lake could we avoid them. The day was largely spoiled by this entirely unnecessary mechanical intrusion.

In Grand Teton National Park power boats have long been an entertainment feature on Jenny Lake, one of the West's most scenic lakes in the midst of spectacular mountain scenery. Now reports are coming in that water skiing on Jackson Lake in the same park is becoming very popular. This is the type of resort activity that should be excluded from the national parks. They were intended to be museums of primitive nature, not tourist traps with noisy entertainment features.

A recent United Press dispatch from New York by Fred T. Ferguson points out the dangers of speed boating and water skiing. He mentions "a complete disregard of the rules of the road by the hundreds who have turned from the highways to the waterways." He says that "there were fears among power squadron officers that water skiing will be a major cause of accidents this year."

WELL-BABY CONFERENCE ON SEPTEMBER 5

The Carmel Well-Baby Conference, held regularly on the first Thursday of each month at the Church of the Wayfarer, is scheduled for September 5 at 9:00 o'clock. The conference is conducted by a pediatrician, who, assisted by Public Health Nurses, gives individual counseling on the various aspects of infancy. Group discussion of child emotional growth with a psychiatric social worker is provided for those who are interested.

Appointments can be made by telephoning the Monterey County Health Department office, FRontier 2-4583.

In confined waters you find dozens of skiers all cutting in and out around other boats and each other. Their towboats often operate in flagrant violation of speed rules in addition to the rules of the road.

Just as I was leaving Juniper Lake a mimeographed bulletin was distributed to campers, evidently issued by a minister from a near-by community. It was an invitation to attend a community gathering in a privately owned portion of the park, with tree cutting as one of the entertainment features. It also contained a plea for the reinstatement of motor boating on Juniper Lake. I sincerely hope that the Superintendent will stand by his determination to keep this beautiful lake in its present peaceful condition.

End Steamboat Springs Summer
Miss Portia Mansfield and Miss Charlotte Perry are returning to their Carmel home after closing their Perry-Mansfield Camp and School of the Theater in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, on August 25.

Miss Mansfield will spend the winter preparing schedules and plays for next year's season while Miss Perry will again be drama director at Santa Catalina School. She is also joining with Jeanne Cherry, Francois Martin and Ralph Geddes in organizing a children's theatre in Carmel Valley. Plans are that productions of this group will be in a remodeled barn on the edge of the Village.

Booootians Move South

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Booootian are leaving on Sunday for Los Angeles where Dr. Booootian will be an instructor in the zoology department at UCLA. For the past two years he has been at the Hopkins Marine Station and is particularly known here for the film which he made on sea otters.

Helen Beattie Married

Helen Beattie and Harry Lee Munsinger were married on Saturday in St. James Episcopal Church of Monterey by the Reverend David St. Leger Hill, rector of St. Matthias Church, Seaside.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Douglas Beattie of Carmel, and was attended by her three sisters, Mrs. William Simpson as matron of honor, and Patricia and Cynthia Beattie as bridesmaids.

The church was decorated for the wedding with arrangements of white carnations and magnolia leaves with clusters of the same flowers, tied with white satin ribbon, placed at the entrance to the pews.

The bride wore a gown of off-white taffeta with seed pearl bows trimming the scoop neckline, and waist of the long-sleeved bodice. The full skirt of the dress extended into a cathedral train. A small taffeta cap, also trimmed with seed pearl bows, held her elbow length French illusion veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley arranged with magnolia leaves.

Her sisters wore similar full-skirted gowns of pink taffeta with lace covered bodices and cummerbunds with bows in back. Their small veils were of pink net with white chenille dots, and they carried bouquets of red roses.

Melvin Munsinger of Red Bluff was best man for his brother, and ushers were William Moore of Berkeley and Steven Hink of San Francisco.

Mrs. Beattie wore a gown of aquamarine chiffon with shirred bodice and sleeves, a matching hat, and pinned a corsage of cymbidium orchids to her purse.

Mrs. Munsinger attended her son's marriage in a deep green nylon and net dress, an off-white French flower hat and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The wedding reception was held at the Beattie home in Carmel.

For travelling the bride wore a white-trimmed sheath dress of olive-gray cotton tweed, a white hat, and black accessories.

The couple will live in Carmel until the bridegroom completes Army service at Fort Ord in November. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Munsinger of Red Bluff and a graduate of the University of California where he was affiliated with Theta Xi fraternity.

The bride graduated from Pomona College before spending a year at the University of California at Berkeley doing postgraduate work in public health. Her father, the late Douglas Beattie, was an opera singer with the San Francisco, Chicago and Metropolitan Opera companies.

Hudsons Home From Mountains

Supervisor Thomson J. Hudson is back, taking care of this part of the county, after a two week, "more or less," vacation with his wife Jane, sons Tim and Dan, and daughter Sally, at Fallen Leaf Lake. The "more or less" is because Tom wasn't able to spend the entire two weeks in the Sierra with his family because of supervisory duties here.

Seven Awards For Mrs. Baumann

Mrs. Mary Baumann of Carmel Highlands, 87 year old mother of Dr. Friedy Heisler, won seven awards for the knitted articles she entered in the Monterey County Fair, two first places, one second, one third and three fourth places. The work which Mrs. Baumann entered included a man's sweater, a little girl's sweater, a man's vest, a baby set, a snow cap, gloves and socks. When Mrs. Baumann went to see her ribboned knitting, Fair officials allowed her car to be driven right to the home economics building.

"I couldn't do this in Switzerland," said Mrs. Baumann, amazed at the waiving of regulations for her benefit.

Sylvia Winter Wed

Announcements telling of the marriage of Sylvia Winter to Charles Pollock have been received by Carmel friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Wolff of East Lansing, Michigan. The wedding took place on August 12 in Estes Park, Colorado, where Mr. and Mrs. Wolff spend their summers.

Sylvia is the daughter of Mrs. Wolff and the late Rudolph Winter of Carmel. Her aunt is Mrs. Donald Ogden Stewart (Ella Winter) who lived in Carmel during the time she was married to the late Lincoln Steffens.

Sylvia spent her early childhood here, moving East after her mother's marriage to Ernst Wolff, former accompanist for Dorothy Maynor, now teaching piano in the music department of Michigan State College.

Campbells Took Boat Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Campbell with daughters Lynne, Julie and Polly, have just returned from a two weeks' vacation. They drove north to Victoria, along the East coast of Vancouver Island to Nanaimo, crossed to Vancouver and then took the Swedish Johnson Line ship Venezuela for a seven day voyage home stopping in Seattle and Tacoma, going up the Columbia River to Portland and landing in San Francisco.

"The girls wanted to stay on the ship and go to Sweden," says Mrs. Campbell.

Afton Lewis A Bride

Afton Lewis of San Francisco chose to come to Carmel, her childhood home, to be married to Mervin Giacomini, Humboldt county rancher. The wedding took place on Monday afternoon in the chapel of the Church of the Wayfarer with the Reverend Charles H. Burrill performing the ceremony. Witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pennebaker of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gerdt of Carmel and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Windhorst of San Francisco. The couple are now honeymooning in Las Vegas, Nevada, and plan to live in Marin County where they are building a home.

Both the bride and groom are licensed pilots.

Grandson Visits Heislars

Eight month old Karl Heisler came on Wednesday to visit his grandparents Dr. Friedy Heisler and Mr. Francis Heisler of Carmel Highlands. With Karl came his parents Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Heisler. They will all remain here for a week. Dr. Ivan Heisler is now a practising psychiatrist in San Francisco.

Mrs. Comstock Weds Louis Mayer

Mrs. Hurd Comstock (Dora Hagemeyer) of Carmel and Louis Mayer, sculptor and artist, were married on August 13 in Fishkill, New York, where Mr. Mayer makes his home. They are now in Germany visiting Mr. Mayer's relatives and also to meet Mr. Mayer's close friend Dr. Albert Schweitzer, who has come from Lambarene, Africa, to his home town of Gunsbach near the Mayer family home on the Rhine.

Louis Mayer and Dr. Schweitzer first met after Mr. Mayer heard Dr. Schweitzer play the organ in the Gunsbach church. The friendship is of many years standing with Dr. Schweitzer and Mr. Mayer meeting yearly either in Europe or the United States.

In the 1954 Bach Festival edition of the Pine Cone, Mrs. Comstock, Pine Cone poetry editor who writes under the name Dora Hagemeyer, published three poems based on three quotations of Dr. Schweitzer on Bach's music. They were headed Johann Sebastian

Bach with a quotation prefacing each poem.

A Carmel friend of both Mrs. Comstock and Louis Mayer sent a copy of the poems to the latter who wrote to Mrs. Comstock telling his admiration of her poetry. So began a correspondence ending in a meeting in June when Mrs. Comstock went East.

She and Mr. Mayer decided to marry then, after Mrs. Comstock had returned briefly to Carmel.

A letter in this issue of the Pine Cone gives Mrs. Mayer's impressions of New York harbor as she sailed for Europe on the Caronia and how she is learning German in preparation for meeting her husband's relatives.

A bust of Dr. Albert Schweitzer by Louis Mayer is in Carmel at the Cherry Foundation. The poems published in the Pine Cone were also sent to Dr. Schweitzer who wrote telling the author of his appreciation of her work.

After the European trip, Mr. and Mrs. Mayer plan to live in New York. Mrs. Mayer is the mother of David Hagemeyer of Carmel and Max Hagemeyer of Sonora.

Kellogg's Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Kellogg celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on August 17, a month early, because their three children and their grandchildren could come to Carmel during the summer but not after school started.

Making the trip to Carmel for the family anniversary dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kellogg from Jefferson City, Tennessee, and their four children, Janet, Nancy, Norman and Andy; from Berkeley came Mr. and Mrs. John Woodyard (Ruth Kellogg) and their two daughters Alice and Mary; and from Fullerton Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman (Mary Kellogg).

The Jack Kellogg family are spending over a month as the guests of Mr. Kellogg's parents. The Woodyards stayed three weeks and the Chapmans one week. All three of the Kellogg children were childhood residents of Carmel and attended Sunset School.

Eplings Fly From Australia

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Judson Epling (Sibyl Kocher) flew home from Australia last week and are staying at Carmel Highlands with Sibyl's parents Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Kocher.

Six months ago Sibyl and Jud left here with Jud, an anthropologist, planning two years' research on a primitive semi-nomadic Australian tribe. He had been awarded a fellowship by the Australian National University in Canberra for his proposed studies. However, after six months in Canberra exploring the field, Jud found that no truly primitive tribe remained. The aborigines are living at missions or on cattle stations and do not offer proper research conditions. So he and Sibyl flew home and Jud is now planning to continue research in anthropology at the University of California in Berkeley.

Also in Berkeley this year will be Mr. and Mrs. Michael Harner (June Kocher) who spent the past year in Ecuador while Mike did research on the Jivaro Indians on a Dougherty grant. June and her two children are also staying with Dr. and Mrs. Kocher until Mike comes back from Ecuador. June has found a house in Berkeley and the Harner family will leave before the University of California opens next month. Mike has a teaching position in the anthropology department at Cal.

Shrums Have Daughter

Carmel grandparents of the new baby are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Beshore and her other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shrum of Greenberg, Pennsylvania.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Man's responsibility for demonstrating divine healing power will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus."

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible will include the account in Luke of Jesus' healing of Peter's mother-in-law (4:39): "And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (25:22-26): "Though demonstrating his control over sin and disease, the great Teacher by no means relieved others from giving the requisite proofs of their own piety. He worked for their guidance, that they might demonstrate this power as he did and understand its divine Principle."

"RIGHT-TO-WORK"

On Monday, August 26, after seven weeks of picketing at Carmel's Blue Bird Restaurant, Hotel and Culinary Workers Union Local discontinued its "advertising" in front of the restaurant and said in effect that it hoped Carmel would forget all about the Blue Bird matter.

However, more than 1000 citizens of this community have indicated through the signing of petitions that they do not want to ignore any longer the real problem which the Blue Bird case has spotlighted—namely the legal conditions which allow union leaders here to dictate to employers and employees alike.

Not just employers and their employees are the losers in such disputes. Everyone is losing a part of his personal freedoms because of this extraordinary power of unions, which permits them to enforce their demands that all employees of a business establishment should be forced in joining a union whether they want to or not.

We urge you, the citizens of Carmel, to inform yourselves on "Right-To-Work" and how it returns the freedom of choice to ALL, workers, employers and the public.

You will see that "Right-To-Work" is not anti-union or anti-anyone; it is pro-INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM.

"Americans must have the right, but not be compelled to join labor unions."
